

So you think mind reading is boring? THINK AGAIN!

CHRIS NORTH Comedy Mind Reader

You will laugh!
You will be amazed!
You will question what you see!

Billed as a comedy mentalist and mind reader, Chris North's trump card is that he has original routines to offer working well with the volunteers he picked and making sure he involved all the audience and not just the 'chosen few'.

The Stage & Television Today

Will have you laughing in one breath and totally astounded in the next!

CHRIS NORTH Comedy Mind Reader

Amazing mind games from the baffling to the seemingly impossible

If you have watched this sort of thing on TV and wondered Can this be done in the real world?

The answer is - Yes it can!

After the show, tell your friends what happened.

They probably won't believe you...

A unique opportunity to be a part of this extraordinary experience!

FAST, FUNNY
AND ORIGINAL

Chris engaged the audience from the start with a friendly game of catch, of course there was more to this than meets the eye... The energy continued through this well constructed show as Chris used the audience's thoughts and body language to take them on an entertaining journey of mind reading. You could tell that a lot of thought had gone into the show as there were real laugh out loud moments during a crazy mind reading game show.

There were plenty of twists and turns leaving you scratching your head in wonder and confusion, at how Chris could know what he knew? The show carried everyone along to it's amazing finale leaving everybody dumbfounded. From the set and staging of the show down to Chris's entertaining interactions with his audience, this was an experience not to be missed! Theatre review

Looking for something different? This is it! Suitable for all audiences